"Sanchez Di Rupo" takes listeners on an exhilarating electronic journey through Sanchez's unique musical universe, where electronic beats, classical motifs, world music influences, and ambient textures converge in a tapestry of musical collages. The album transcends traditional boundaries, offering a collection of eclectic and full-length compositions that immerse the listener in a captivating indie music experience.

Featuring 19 stunning tracks, the self-titled album, "Sanchez Di Rupo" showcases Sanchez's unparalleled talent as a producer, composer, and sonic storyteller. Each composition is a meticulously crafted piece that combines various elements and influences to create an immersive and ever-evolving electronic adventure. From the intricate layers of "Gondwanaland" to the harsh rhythms of "Test Mach" every track on the album unveils a new facet of Sanchez's creative prowess.

Sanchez Di Rupo's passion for music and tireless dedication to the craft shine through in every aspect of this self-titled debut album. As an independent artist, Sanchez has fearlessly embraced a uncompromising artistic vision, drawing inspiration from diverse musical traditions to weave together intricate and seamless musical tapestries.

Sanchez Di Rupo is thrilled to share a fresh musical vision with the world commenting: "This album represents a culmination of many years of exploration and experimentation. In good years and in bad years I took the opportunity to spend as much time as possible putting my mind at ease creating music as I like it."

"Sanchez Di Rupo" will be available for streaming and download on all major music platforms starting May 12, 2023. The album will also be accompanied by a visually stunning music video for two songs, "Like Clockwork" & "Verdi's Animal Circus" which further enhances the immersive experience of Sanchez's indie musical creations.
